LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We respectfully acknowledge the University of Arizona is on the land and territories of Indigenous peoples. Today, Arizona is home to 22 federally recognized tribes. The College of Applied Science and Technology has locations in Tucson, home to the O'odham and the Yaqui, and in Sierra Vista on land historically inhabited by the Chiricahua Apache. Committed to diversity and inclusion, the University strives to build sustainable relationships with sovereign Native Nations and Indigenous communities through education offerings, partnerships, and community service.
